OneHockey Announces Exciting Partnership with Petey Puck as Official Sponsor of Player of the Game Awards

Sept 24, 2024 — OneHockey is proud to announce a brand-new partnership with Petey Puck and their innovative Off-Ice Stick and Link Puck, which will be the official sponsor of the Player of the Game awards for this season's tournaments.

Players honored as the Player of the Game will have the privilege of wearing the OneHockey Player of the Game Chain until their next game, celebrating their outstanding performance on the ice. The chain will be passed along to other exceptional players on the team throughout the tournament. In addition, each Player of the Game will receive a commemorative Player of the Game Poster to recognize their achievement.

"We are extremely excited to partner with Petey Puck," said [Your Name], CEO of OneHockey. "Their innovative off-ice training tools align perfectly with our goal of enhancing the player experience, and we're thrilled to add this exciting new element to our tournaments."
