OneHockey Florida Tournament Moves to Stanley Cup Champions Arena & adds an all-girls tournament.

OneHockey is thrilled to announce that the OneHockey Spring Florida Tournament is relocating to the training arena of the Stanley Cup Champions, the Florida Panthers, in Boca Raton, Florida. This move marks an exciting new chapter for our tournament as we explore this vibrant area in Southeast Florida.

After several wonderful years in the Tampa Bay area, we are eager to bring our renowned tournament experience to Boca Raton. The new location promises to enhance the event with state-of-the-art facilities and a fresh atmosphere, perfectly suited for an unforgettable hockey experience.

Mark your calendars for our upcoming events in May, where both boys and girls teams will compete for glory. We look forward to welcoming everyone to Florida this coming May for a tournament filled with high-level competition and the spirit of OneHockey.
